

Name _____

Date _____

Disability

A disability can affect a child in many ways. Some children cannot see well. (Witch, For, Apple) some it may affect their hearing. (Others, Death, Ghost) have trouble talking. Physical problems are (night, catfish, also) common. Some disabilities affect a child's (learning, black, monster) or behavior.

Our nation's laws promise (darkness, pumpkin, an) appropriate education for these children. This (law, blood, candy) is called IDEA. IDEA stands for (fuel, the, coward) Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. This (huge, volume, law) gives kids with disabilities certain rights. (One, Renew, Due) right is an Individual Education Plan. (Bruise, Hawk, It) is also known as the IEP. (Every, Joint, Gloomy) child who has a disability has (troop, an, using) IEP. In the IEP the child's (family, pure, rude) and the school set goals for (duties, rude, the) student. The goals are important. The (amuse, goals, nephew) describe what the child needs to (refused, learn, locate) in school. The IEP also states (who, dispute, enroll) is going to help the child (promote, at, sorrow) school. In addition, the IEP also (says, chosen, ode) what special materials the child needs (holy, produce, to) succeed. A child may need special (found, chorus, books). Some children may need special glasses. (Mouse, Other, Entire) children may need hearing aids. There (are, party, replace) some kids that need wheelchairs. Some (round, kids, froze) may need special helpers.

Every year (the, fought, weave) child, the parents, and the school (clown, thought, staff) get together. At this meeting they (tone, look, entire) at the IEP. This is how (IDEA, away, relieve) helps children with disabilities.

Name _____

Date _____

Should I Play Football?

I started playing football when I was just a kid growing up in our neighborhood. We had a great time playing (football, tickle, where). Of course, it was just "touch" (swiftly, football, tardy) and we didn't actually tackle anybody. (Meat, Middle, We) did do some blocking, but that (only, humble, single) amounted to getting in other people's (tangle, way, major) so that they could not touch (kettle, the, hilly) person with the ball. No one (was, bottle, furry) allowed to jump at somebody or (doll, hit, dusk) him in the legs the way (they, handy, short) do in tackle football.

When I (newly, got, eight) into sixth grade I had my (pity, sadly, first) chance to play tackle football where (everyone, lightly, dirty) wore football pads and a uniform. (Twenty, I, Freely) thought I looked great with those (huge, kind, song) shoulder pads covered by my football (jelly, witty, jersey). Once we got out onto the (field, deep, hard) though, and had to start blocking (penny, and, candy) tackling, I wasn't so sure that (I, Pear, Train) enjoyed playing football. Instead of taking (factory, happy, turns) playing as quarterback or pass receiver (the, wind, back) way we did in our neighborhood (sink, touch, clearly) football games, I had to play (as, dusk, had) an inside lineman all of the (ready, orange, time). This meant I had to block (reach, ship, someone) on every play, and I never (team, got, late) to touch the football. I've got (what, despite, to) be honest with you, I'm not (so, bigger, create) sure I really want to play (desire, ready, football).

Name _____

Date _____

The Test

Angela was confident she would do well on the reading test. She had been preparing for a (contain, long, niece) time. It was very important. If (faithful, relief, she) didn't do well, she wouldn't get (a, believe, training) diploma. Her teacher had Angela and (belief, her, trailer) friends practicing their reading a lot. (First, Brief, Explained) they had been reading lots of (pleasing, books, detail). Second, the teacher had been listening (to, yearly, raisin) every student read aloud. If Angela (faint, increase, stumbled) on a word, she'd help her (with, preacher, faith) it. Third, after reading stories, the (jail, students, eastern) would talk about what they had (read, season, maid). Fourth, the teacher taught them how (behave, easily, to) approach multiple-choice items. Fifth, Angela (separate, had, peace) been trying to learn lots of (new, daughter, subtract) words. And finally, her class had (replace, been, grease) taking lots of practice tests. Every (married, picture, time) Angela took a practice test her (score, renew, weave) would improve. She was sure all (produce, sneeze, this) time and work would lead to (a, frame, single) passing score.

Wednesday would be the (steel, tail, big) day of the test; everyone would (rate, start, greet) at 9:00 AM. The test had (no, deed, plane) time limit, so Angela wasn't worried (deceive, blaze, about) finishing. The teacher told the class (to, elect, gravy) get plenty of sleep the night (crazy, idea, before) the test. She also suggested making (sure, science, grind) they had a good breakfast. Angela (addition, married, talked) to her parents about getting ready. (They, Chosen, Produce) said they would help her be (crime, bicycle, ready). Angela knew the test wouldn't be (twilight, any, enroll) problem. She was ready!

Name _____

Date _____

The Hot Day

It was one of those hot, muggy August days that Jermaine dreaded. Last night was bad enough. He (elect, couldn't, idea) sleep in his family's hot apartment. (His, Cable, Fame) mom had opened all the windows (plane, evil, because) they had no air conditioning. But (it, maid, sleigh) didn't help much and only made (odor, duties, the) city noises louder.

So Jermaine's sleepless (gravy, night, pure) was turning into one of those (rate, days, rude) when finding a gushing fire hydrant (might, troop, blaze) be the day's main activity. Even (detail, hawk, the) thought of playing basketball down at (severe, the, contain) square seemed unappealing.

This, of course, (was, frame, yearly) remarkable since Jermaine lived to play (refused, basketball, separate). Every free moment he had he (faith, type, spent) down at the square playing in (pickup, detail, using) basketball games with boys two and (raisin, three, trailer) years older. Jermaine was proud of (the, tail, sign) fact that as a seventh grader (joint, author, he) could hold his own in pickup (games, pure, entire) with older kids.

Jermaine's only worry (now, breeze, mighty) was staying cool. Swimming seemed like (easily, scale, the) best choice for today. His Mom (and, ghost, whole) Dad had already gone to work (scene, and, autumn) his older brother had left too. (Scissors, Deceive, Jermaine) was on his own. He was (peace, too, crime) young to work, but really too (old, trailer, admire) to have someone stay with him. (Produce, During, Slight) summer he was under strict instructions (jail, hire, to) stay close to home and check (huge, in, due) every couple of hours at Mrs. (Hardaway's, Increase, Faint). Mrs. Hardaway was the next door (paint, chorus, neighbor) on the fourth floor.

Name _____

Date _____

Plane Ride

Stosh was leaving to visit his brother in Maine and he was both scared and excited. For the first time ever he (was, reach, junk) going to fly in an airplane, (asked, and, wing) he wasn't sure what it would (spill, team, be) like to be so far above (the, loan, plow) ground.

Stosh's parents drove him to (stay, the, coax) airport at the scheduled time. Unfortunately, (as, whip, burn) so often happens, the plane was (handle, late, ink) so they had to wait at (the, beetle, strive) gate for almost an hour. The (tumble, additional, taught) sitting and waiting gave Stosh more (longed, candle, time) to think about the hazards of (flying, sandy, your) and increased his anxiety.

When the (crack, tumble, plane) finally arrived, Stosh kissed his mom, (term, happy, shook) his father's hand, and carried his (private, bag, river) onto the airplane. He had a (seat, plain, yellow) by the window so after he (night, pick, fastened) his seat belt he sat and (danger, looked, record) out at the terminal. While he (sat, shoe, department) there he wondered whether there might (alert, still, home) be time for him to get (normal, police, off) of the plane and not risk (flying, hire, play).

Finally, the plane took off, and (Brick, Move, Stosh) felt his stomach leap. The plane (drain, was, major) speeding down the runway and suddenly (live, three, they) were off the ground. Stosh felt (crime, his, diet) ears popping as they rose higher (and, decline, maybe) higher. The plane was flying. He (realized, state, there) that it was now too late (belief, for, snow) him to get off of the (return, list, plane), so he sat back and tried (to, stamp, color) enjoy the ride.

Name _____

Date _____

London

London, England is one of the top tourist attractions in the world. It is steeped in history. It (also, shoot, burst) has plenty of pop culture to (loom, experience, market). London has many palaces, museums, and (snarl, food, theatres) to see. Here are few of (the, shark, boost) main attractions.

Buckingham Palace: This is (start, where, spoon) the Queen of England lives. It (hard, doom, is) open to the public for two (months, hard, room) each summer. Visitors can see eighteen (arctic, rooms, soon).

Changing of the Guard: The guards (card, nurse, change) outside of Buckingham Palace. The ceremony (begins, army, crook) daily at 10:45 and lasts over (park, choose, an) hour. The guards are famous for (their, sharp, tooth) red coats and black hats.

Tower (carp, of, hoot) London: The Tower is a castle (star, loop, that) is over 900 years old. It (is, mark, red) the location of many important events (dart, barn, in) English history. Tours are conducted by (horrible, military, final) guards dressed in Tudor uniforms. On (display, mistake, inside) are the crown jewels and the (everyone, month, homes) of past kings and queens. Also (interesting, record, check) are the dungeons where many were (truck, charm, jailed). The Tower is on the Thames (Drive, Subway, River).

Houses of Parliament: Parliament is also (given, famous, along) the Thames River. This is the (grown, home, little) of British government. Westminster Hall and (Big, Stocking, Heaven) Ben clock tower are part of (volume, table, this) area.

Name _____

Date _____

Just "Hanging Out"

On weekends, my buddies and I spend a lot of time just "hanging out." I suppose that's true for a (lot, know, people) of guys who are in seventh (about, grade, single). During the week, we are incredibly (road, father, busy) going to school, going to basketball (practice, thrown, grow), coming home to eat, and doing (mown, our, step) homework. We don't always get to (dough, dead, our) homework, of course! Given that kind (of, road, depot) a schedule, it should be easy (soul, to, together) understand why we spend a lot (trail, hall, of) time on weekends just "hanging out."

(You, Could, Kind) can imagine that our parents don't (paint, like, train) "hanging out" very much. Each one (of, got, blue) us has had more than one "(house, above, heart)-to-heart" conversation with our folks (about, friend, smoke) what we ought to be doing (know, yellow, with) our time on weekends. They all (pillow, seem, apple) to think we'll get into trouble (if, dart, your) we have too much free time (barn, lower, on) our hands. They have all read (the, show, was) stories in the newspaper about how (send, books, kids) need to be actively involved to (married, name, prevent) delinquency.

I wish someone would explain (to, farm, wait) me why having free time necessarily (major, collect, leads) young people to bad behavior. I (don't, fight, duty) believe that is true, at all. (Case, Green, One) of our teachers once talked about (something, cave, party) called the "work ethic." His view (reveal, was, happen) that working hard all of the (time, crowd, fight) was required to be a good (anything, waist, person). The work ethic must still be (strong, interest, know) in our society.

Name _____

Date _____

The Hike

Bob and Steve had been planning their weeklong hike for quite awhile. It took a long time to (weave, prepare, tepee) for this adventure and the boys (were, stream, steeple) ready. Steve worked at the local (gleam, degree, grocery) store during the winter so that (he, laugh, teeth) could save enough money for camping (needle, peach, equipment). He was pleased with the new (two-person, better, sneak) tent and sleeping bag he had (about, bought, cream). Although he thought the sleeping bag (wheat, agree, cost) too much, he was glad that (it, clean, eight) would be extra warm for cold (danger, temperatures, refugee).

Bob had also been busy planning. (He, Beetle, Teach) was in charge of getting the (cheap, record, food) ready, which was no easy task. (Feeble, Since, Speak) the boys would be gone for (six, reply, message) nights, they had a lot of (squeal, station, food) to bring along. This worried Bob (because, purple, wage) it meant they would have too (feast, much, creek) weight to carry on their six (day, myself, today) hike. Bob solved his problem, though, (warm, start, when) he visited a camping store. There (seven, he, never) found out that he could buy (packages, forever, person) of food that were specially prepared (freak, beach, to) be extremely lightweight. Best of all, (Needle, Bob, Science) thought, the packages contained some pretty (good, yeast, coast) meals such as beef stew, scrambled (grown, poultry, eggs), lots of vegetables and even popcorn.

Name _____

Date _____

Twins

What would it be like to have twins in your family? I think that if they were (identical, bough, deceive) in their appearance it could be (cable, a, avenue) lot of fun to watch people (plane, ride, react) to them. I could watch to (see, witness, notice) if people could tell them apart (airport, they, and) as they got older, might even (language, try, wrote) to get them to play tricks (another, under, on) people. One of them could deliberately (pretend, friendly, replace) to be the other. In school, (replace, visit, for) example, they could try to trade (people, places, butcher) and each one could try to (go, active, barn) to all of the other twin's (your, classes, kindred). They could try to see whether (whatever, the, jewelry) teachers would be able to discover (that, laundry, wagon) they were talking to a different (round, discount, person).

I'm sure that there are some (things, mirror, season) I might not like very well (grouch, house, about) having twins in my family. Right (dessert, now, hospital), I'm the only child in our (college, sound, family). I'm the center of attention. If, (all, planet, would) of a sudden, we had twins (clown, in, relief) our family I would no longer (insert, visit, be) in that center. I think my (parents, lounge, breeze) would be so preoccupied with their (mouse, two, travel) new babies that they might easily (forget, haven't, reward) all about me. I imagine that (south, predict, when) they planned things for us to (orange, do, proud) as a family that they would (airplane, introduce, think) more about what would please the (twins, sibling, fireplace) rather than what would please me. (Your, Flower, I) suppose that's not all bad.

Name _____

Date _____

The Doughnut Shop

One day Danny made a big mistake. It just happened to be when (he, saw, beauty) was helping Mr. Appleby. Mr. Appleby (draw, was, brook) one of the grumpiest men in (crawl, employ, town), and everyone knew it. People would (stay, flew, fancy) away from Mr. Appleby because they (were, circus, boiled) scared of him.

Mr. Appleby also (chew, twenty, happened) to have a brand new sedan (with, jaw, newer) a leather interior. When Danny put (plowed, the, pull) groceries on the seat, one bag (fell, gentle, shook) over. It happened to be a (maiden, doom, bag) with a dozen eggs on top, (which, circle, hawk) broke all over Mr. Appleby's seat. (Gully, Took, It) was a huge mess and took (quite, settle, edge) awhile to clean up. Anyone else (broil, might, sprint) have forgiven Danny, but not Mr. (Kind, Furry, Appleby). He made sure Danny was fired (from, face, nightly) the job.

Now that he was (explode, starting, open) a new job at the doughnut (puzzle, dirty, shop), Danny couldn't imagine that it would (be, again, salad) too difficult. There would be no (city, dishes, grudge) to break, and he wouldn't be (flaw, crook, going) near any new cars, so, he (high, waist, was) confident that this would be the (merry, civic, job) to earn him the money he (enjoy, needed, real).

It smelled wonderful in the shop; (germ, harm, there) were chocolate covered doughnuts, glazed doughnuts, (sugar, point, deep) doughnuts and plain cake doughnuts. Danny (sure, could, brown) tell he was going to like (cook, blind, this) job! The hardest part would be (muddy, find, trying) not to eat too many.

It's Contagious

Most people think of illness when they hear the word contagious. But viruses are not the only (thing, man, have) that can spread quickly from one (left, person, show) to another. Have you ever noticed (subtract, fork, how) one person in a room will (yawn, spoon, cow) and the next thing you know, (several, dog, smell) other people are yawning? It's some (dog, kind, show) of subliminal power of suggestion.

Another (touch, pick, human) behavior that is contagious is smiling. (Within, Finish, Age) a matter of hours, one smile (with, can, old) multiply into a thousand smiles reaching (cat, pitch, across) a thousand miles. Think about it. (Picture, The, Beauty) same is true, no doubt for (frowning, beautiful, their), but who wants to spread negative (feelings, hers, deaf)? Next time you are in a (they, group, hear) notice what the general atmosphere of (the, spoon, hard) crowd is. If it is less (none, than, alive) enthusiastic, see if you can light (up, birth, love) the room with a smile. Odds (friend, are, best) that your grin will become contagious (room, none, as) people pass it on throughout the (gathering, dead, riding). An outbreak of smiles could actually (dog, raised, start) an epidemic!

Can you think of (friend, wife, any) other things that people do that (are, cousin, wedding) contagious? How about kindness? We often (aunt, hear, twin) that acts of kindness can spread. (Addition, Presumably, Supper), if you do something helpful for (lower, point, someone) else, then that person is more (raise, likely, pressure) to do something helpful for another (person, treat, closer). How much nicer and friendlier the (list, stake, world) would be if we could all (make, danger, handle) kindness a contagion.

Name _____

Date _____

The Farm

Now that my mother lives in our house all of the time, going home to the farm is a special trip for her. We usually make that trip at (Thanksgiving, Which, Bean) or Christmas. My favorite time to (go, sheep, wish) is early in the summer. That's (career, work, when) the strawberries are ripe. My grandfather (would, has, agree) a big strawberry patch and we (beetle, write, get) to eat all of the strawberries (that, your, meek) we want. We eat strawberries with (wash, fresh, very) cream from the farm. We eat (upon, cheek, strawberry) shortcake. I really like the shortcake (that, those, fleet) my grandmother makes. My favorite way (these, to, feet) eat strawberries, though, is with homemade (their, ice, teeth) cream. I usually eat too much (sleep, speech, and) feel sick when I'm done.

Sometimes (right, beef, I) watch my grandma make real pork (sausage, read, team). She takes a meat grinder out (meet, of, queen) the drawer and clamps it to (speed, about, the) breadboard. Then she takes the chunks (of, better, seem) pork, grinds them, and fills the (bring, sweet, sausage) casing with the sausage mix. After (carry, I, bread) watch her make the sausage, I (clean, don't, sweep) feel much like eating it.

I (done, creek, hope) you can see why going home (draw, to, sleep) the farm is special to my (wheel, drink, mother). You can probably tell that going (home, eight, sheep) is very special to me, too. (I'll, Grow, Light) bet going home is special to (keep, laugh, just) about everyone.

Name _____

Date _____

Soccer

Rosa's soccer team had not played well all season. They had won only seven games (in, ice, age) their twenty game season. Rosa had (page, struggled, wage) all season long too. She had (rage, mice, injured) her right ankle early in the (season, badge, place). Several other players had also been (hurt, rice, face). Now the playoffs were beginning and (expectations, glance, fringe) were high. The good news was (dodge, fence, everyone) was healthy. For the first time (all, edge, since) season Rosa could run at full (fudge, dance, speed). Better yet, she didn't feel pain (stride, when, force) she kicked the ball. That was (important, gentle, forge) because as left striker, her team (cent, needed, ounce) her to make goals.

Their first (number, playoff, spice) game was against Oakdale, their big (rival, acid, giant). During the regular season Rosa's team (jump, lost, show) twice to Oakdale. Today would be (a, fun, cover) different story. Before the game Rosa (issue, power, and) her teammates had an important meeting. (They, Circle, Fancy) talked about how this time they (circus, would, mercy) put together a good team effort.

There were only a few minutes (silly, to, shirt) play and the game was tied. (Shower, Rosa's, Down) teammate, Kia, quickly intercepted the ball (at, nothing, fake) midfield and sped toward the goal. (Rosa, Called, Right) sprinted down the left side, hoping (bundle, to, injured) get a pass. Just as the (goalie, near, heat) came up to make the stop, (Van, Very, Kia) made a beautiful pass over to (Rosa, Lived, Egg). Rosa kicked the ball into the (door, shoe, open) net. Rosa's team led 2 to 1. (Friend, Below, She) was ecstatic.

Name _____

Date _____

Cold Weather

The radio announcers were all talking about the unusually cold weather we were about to experience. Apparently, a cold front was coming (down, brief, hour) from Canada and it was coming (gown, fast, elect). They expected it to arrive by (howl, found, noon).

All of the weather forecasters were (predicting, deed, owl) that the temperature would drop to (town, at, preacher) least 25 degrees below zero. When (belief, clown, combined) with the wind the temperature would (be, growl, sleigh) like it was 75 degrees below (severe, drown, zero). That kind of temperature would be (really, allow, grease) dangerous because unprotected skin would freeze (greet, in, brow) a matter of minutes. The people (on, peace, increase) the radio talked about the importance (frown, fount, of) being careful, and they said that (we, lounge, steel) should stay inside if possible.

I (easily, didn't, scout) want to hear about the weather (believe, thought, being) so cold that we should stay (inside, couch, yearly). I wanted to go skiing with (breeze, pouch, my) friends after school. I hoped the (weathermen, season, pound) were wrong, but they weren't. Before (niece, sneeze, the) end of school that day the (temperature, idea, ground) began to drop. The school ski (advice, club, science) trip was cancelled, and I was (really, crime, hire) disappointed. I slowly walked home.

Mom (highly, grind, came) home and said that since everyone (was, growl, admire) staying home she had brought lots (bicycle, of, slight) treats. Dad came in a little (decide, sprout, later) and said he had bought lots (of, mighty, sign) snacks for our night at home. (Browse, Right, Sought) then I realized that staying home (wouldn't, decline, type) be so bad after all!

Name _____

Date _____

Being A Star Athlete

My dad was a junior high school physical education teacher. It should come as no surprise (that, cable, bough) I grew up thinking that playing (fame, sports, ground) was just about the most important (plane, mount, thing) anyone could do. I was lucky (that, maid, stout) I grew up in a neighborhood (complain, with, doubt) a lot of boys who were (similar, crazy, mouth) in age to me. We could (vane, scale, almost) always get together enough guys to (jail, play, mound) a game of whatever sport was (in, explain, count) season. In the fall, we played (shout, football, scout). In winter, most of us played (gravy, basketball, proud) although, some of the guys liked (rate, fame, to) play hockey. In the spring, it (was, faith, sound) softball.

Sometimes, on weekends, my dad (pouch, cloud, would) be working in the woodshop at (school, trailer, evil) and he would let my brother (tale, and, replace) me into the gym to play (basketball, faint, south). I would spend two or three (round, train, hours) shooting baskets and really learned to (frame, about, love) the game. When I got into (rock, separate, high) school my homeroom won the intramural (loud, raisin, basketball) championships for three years in a (row, sleigh, flour). I thought I was going to (blaze, detail, be) a sports star when I got (to, behave, contain) high school. I did manage a (fee, fairly, trout) successful basketball career, but now that (I, mouse, weave) think about it I'm sure I (brief, western, was) too focused on athletics.

The Truck

Angelo climbed into his grandpa's old, red pick-up truck. Angelo loved all of the sounds (idea, odor, the) truck made - the gears grinding and (the, science, holy) horn blowing. Every time he took (bicycle, chorus, a) ride in the truck he thought (it, locate, twilight) would quit running, but the truck (hire, always, chosen) seemed to get them to wherever (they, produce, crime) were going. Even though the truck (admire, had, grocery) never failed them on any of (decline, promote, their) trips Angelo's grandpa didn't like to (take, entire, tone) any chances, so he always carried (a, fee, fame) box full of tools in the (subtract, anymore, back) of the truck.

On this morning (the, deed, hawk) weather was pretty cool and the (ninety, truck, froze) didn't start right away. "No problem!" (advice, said, phone) Angelo's grandpa, "I think it's the (advise, bowl, fuel) pump, and I can fix that (right, decide, envelope) away."

Grandpa got out of the (require, old, known) truck, lifted the hood, and began (bottle, fiddling, effort) with the motor. Angelo tried looking (over, subscribe, growth) the fender, but he wasn't tall (sorrow, nineteen, enough) to see the motor. He knew (his, highly, enroll) grandfather would be able to fix (avenue, the, slight) problem and, sure enough, Grandpa had (the, delight, nephew) truck running in just a few (usually, mighty, minutes). It stuttered, but started smoothly.

Angelo (lightning, jumped, amuse) in again, and this time they (delight, rude, were) off on their way to the (river, pure, grind). Slowly the truck rumbled along the (volume, due, road), and Angelo told himself that some (day, dispute, bowl) he'd have a truck just like (grease, this, visit) one. Only, his truck would be (blue, refused, loyal) and go much faster. He hoped (train, vein, that), he would know as much about (his, chicken, revolve) truck as his grandpa did.

Name _____

Date _____

Language Problems

My family has been living in China for six months now, and during this time I've eaten lots of different foods. I like most of them, but (I, head, drew) haven't had a hamburger for a (thread, long, thief) time. My mother just told me (dread, grew, that) we are going to a place (why, that, start) makes hamburgers, and I'm really excited. (Ready, She, Work) said I don't have to have (one, shield, years) if I don't want one. I (record, want, think) she must be joking because now (I, Set, Class) can't even stop thinking about hamburgers. (Tell, I'm, While) so anxious to have a hamburger (life, key, that) I'm going to try to get (surprise, everyone, jealous) to go early to supper.

When (we, agree, total) get to the restaurant we are (report, leader, happy) to find that the waitress speaks (a, gotten, time) little bit of English. We feel (serious, very, alone) lucky because we speak Chinese almost (not, close, mean) at all. Everyone orders a hamburger (difficult, years, and) I order mine "plain." The waitress (price, asks, wrong) me, "What is a 'plain' hamburger?" (Of, Stop, Press) course, I tell her that in (down, cat, the) United States it is a hamburger (with, lady, step) nothing on it.

After a while (soda, brown, the) waitress brings our food to the (table, kneel, total). Everyone else's hamburger looks really great, (write, point, but) mine doesn't come. After a long (really, wait, cross), I look around the table and (see, turn, your) an empty hamburger bun to one (upset, spoken, side). We all laugh because we realize (that, windy, build) this must be the hamburger with (moved, dress, nothing) on it!

Name _____

Date _____

Jermaine

Jermaine couldn't wait to go swimming. His apartment was unbelievably hot. Jermaine (threw, believe, truck) his swim trunks, a towel and (count, a, have) few dollars into his old red (found, they, gym) bag. As an afterthought, he tossed (look, honor, in) his basketball. On his way out (cheer, he, drink) grabbed a handful of chocolate chip (cookies, answer, welcome). He headed for the elevator. Before (listen, reaching, woman) it, he knocked loudly on Mrs. (Book, Hardaway's, Place) door. He opened her door and (about, stop, yelled) he was on his way to (worse, the, plum) square. As he closed the door (behind, wonder, repeat) him he could hear Mrs. Hardaway (saying, earlier, take) he needed to check back in (water, bright, a) couple of hours.

Normally, Jermaine would (today, have, know) headed down to the 2nd floor (to, rest, gone) the apartment of his best friend, (Person, Landon, Away). But Landon, that lucky guy Jermaine (thought, message, party) to himself, was away to a (closer, summer, camera) camp. So Jermaine was on his (tonight, own, fill). Jermaine headed out the front door (of, gate, car) the apartment building. The swimming pool (hour, throw, was) about six blocks away, so it (drive, would, stand) take him about ten minutes to (get, basic, luck) there. The sun was beating down (hall, on, win) him and the air felt very (program, local, humid). He started to sweat almost immediately. (Jermaine, Would, Band) started to jog. He thought he (toast, might, your) as well get very hot and (roam, suit, sweaty) before he jumped into the pool. (Window, Unfortunately, Evening), while he was sweating, he forgot (that, before, dough) the chocolate chips in the cookies (hollow, oath, were) melting in his pocket.

Name _____

Date _____

Women's Athletics

I wonder how men actually feel about women's athletics. A lot of fathers who have (spout, daughters, known) that play a sport are really (month, react, supportive) of women's athletics. In fact, I (lounge, loyal, doubt) that you could tell the difference (between, science, paper) a father's enthusiasm when rooting for (fought, his, renew) daughter or his son. Despite the (enthusiasm, thousand, volume) of so many fathers, I still (inside, wonder, remain) how most men feel about the (subject, large, grocery) of women's sports.

Why is it (about, reply, that) I wonder about men's attitudes toward (shop, women's, trust) sports? The reason is that so (many, flour, yesterday) of the men I know have (virtually, picture, away) no interest in watching women teams (ground, adult, compete). I have a good friend who (likes, return, yellow) to play and watch men's basketball. (Jealous, He, Seldom) has never watched a women's basketball (game, pound, vacation). I've asked him about his lack (howl, danger, of) interest. He says it stems from (drawn, the, jelly) fact that women players look so (question, awkward, library). Perhaps that is the reason, but (he, mean, yearling) will watch boys play high school (basketball, laughter, bread) even when they are relatively unskilled.

(House, Women, Do) I think men are biased? I (boating, suppose, remove) many are. Eventually, I think that (bias, cloud, election) will diminish. I don't know that (sprout, greatly, it) will completely disappear, however. As long (as, town, bicycle) women are given an equal opportunity (blocks, to, mouse) play, men's interest in women's sports (may, write, studio) not be all that important.

Name _____

Date _____

Rico's Dog

Rit was Rico's dog, and Rico's most important job was to take care of his Rit. Taking care of Rit was no (simple, misty, bright) matter for Rico because Rit had (thimble, to, brittle) have fresh water at all times, (think, funny, and), of course, he had to be (please, human, fed) daily. Providing food and water were (not, horse, ride) the only jobs to be done (mail, in, going) caring for Rit, however. Rit's fur (load, around, had) to be brushed and kept clean.

(Brushing, Step, Love) Rit was something Rico had to (head, do, must) a lot because Rit was always (thank, brown, getting) dirty. Last week Rit found a (big, soon, wish) mud puddle to play in and (Talking, Read, Rico's) mama did not like that. Yesterday, (Rit, Train, Stop) ran through the garden and his (balloon, papa, school) did not like that. It seemed (like, what, button) Rit was always getting into trouble (listen, return, and) Rico was afraid that his mama (and, ring, under) papa would make him get rid (seat, winter, of) Rit.

Last night, all of that (coffee, changed, lower) when Rit saved his family. The (family, could, your) had enjoyed a fire in the (hurry, save, fireplace). When they went to bed his (bring, father, crest) put out the fire, but while (they, glass, seeing) were sleeping a spark flew from (week, bashful, the) fire and onto the rug. The (rug, bath, reason) began to smoke and everyone was (repeat, sound, gone) asleep except Rit who smelled the (smoke, work, open) and began to bark. His barking (limited, reward, awakened) everyone and prevented a disaster.